GCM Grosvenor Works to Drive a Better Industry by Investing with Small, Emerging & Diverse Managers

We believe that small, emerging and diverse managers offer investment opportunities that complement investments in larger, more established funds. Thus, we have developed specific expertise in funding and serving as a catalyst for these managers.

Our small, emerging and diverse managers platform is robust, with over $17 billion in AUM and cumulative commitments. We support this platform with an experienced team, network of contacts and broad sourcing capabilities.
