The Teacher Retirement System of Texas (TRS) and Employees Retirement System of Texas (ERS) host a free, annual Emerging Manager Conference in Austin, Texas. This year's 14th conference will take place on Thursday, February 7, 2019. TRS and ERS are expecting Emerging Managers from across all asset classes, Public and Corporate Pensions, Endowments and Foundations, Asset Allocators, and Consultants. The objective of the conference is to provide industry-leading insights and best practices for the small and diverse Emerging Manager community. It also is a forum for Emerging Managers to meet investors and industry leaders from across the country.

This year's conference is anchored by powerful keynote speakers along with breakout sessions that cover a variety of topics by influential subject matter experts. There is a networking session where attendees can meet their peers, institutional investors and consultants. TRS and ERS are globally recognized institutional asset managers with combined assets under management of more than $170 billion. TRS and ERS manage the investments of over 1.6 million members.
