NIRS Annual Retirement Policy Conference

On February 27 - 28, 2017 members of the National Institute on Retirement Security will engage with top retirement thought-leaders, policymakers, and experts in Washington, D.C. at our annual retirement policy conference.

The conference is exclusive to NIRS members and special invited guests. Again this year, registration is complimentary for NIRS members. If you aren't a member already, we invite you to support our work by becoming a member. And, you'll guarantee your seat at the conference. If you're already a NIRS member, watch for 2017 membership renewal information coming soon.

You won't want to miss NEW research we'll release at the conference, Retirement Security 2017: Roadmap for Policy Makers | Americans' Views of the Retirement Crisis. This biennial nationwide public opinion research report measures Americans' outlook on their financial security in retirement, and it also examines views on issues and policies that could improve their retirement outlook. Take a look at the 2015 public opinion research here.

2017 marks our eighth annual conference, and we are thrilled to again that the event is a platform for members to engage members and spur deep conversations on solutions the address the nation's retirement crisis. We invite you to take a look at the issues examined at our Annual Policy Conferences in 2016, 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011 and 2010.

Stay tuned for more information, but in the meantime, save the date! We look forward to seeing you on February 27 - 28, 2017 in the nation's capital.
